C - Beneficiary Designation/Change of Beneficiary

Note For more than 3 beneficiaries, attach separate sheet. You are responsible to ensure that the beneficiary designation is complete (last name, first name, middle initial). If the beneficiary designation is incomplete or no beneficiary is designated, your estate will be deemed to be the beneficiary. If you designate a beneficiary as irrevocable, or have previously designated a beneficiary as irrevocable, you cannot change your beneficiary designation without the prior written consent of the irrevocable beneficiary.

Where Quebec law applies, a spousal beneficiary (whether married or civil union spouse) is irrevocable unless you make the designation revocable by checking here: Revocable

If more than one beneficiary is designated, ensure that the appropriate % share of benefit is shown below:

D - Trustee/Administrator Clause

If designating a beneficiary who is a minor or who otherwise lacks legal capacity, you may wish to appoint a trustee/administrator by completing this section. This appointment may not be suitable for all purposes. We recommend you consult with a legal advisor, and with any proposed trustee/administrator. Do not complete this section if you have made another trustee/administrator appointment.

I hereby appoint the following trustee to receive and to hold in trust, on behalf of any beneficiary, money payable to the beneficiary under this group policy where, at the time payment is to be made, the beneficiary is a minor or otherwise lacks legal capacity. Any such payment, to its extent, will release the Insurance Company and Canada Post from further liability. The trustee shall act prudently and may use the money, including any returns on it or investments made, for the education and/or maintenance of the beneficiary. The trust will terminate once the beneficiary is of the age of majority and has legal capacity. At that time, the trustee shall deliver to the beneficiary all assets held in trust.

FOR QUEBEC ONLY

Where this appointment is governed by Quebec law, "trustee" shall be understood as "administrator", and their related terms and concepts understood accordingly. This appointment shall be interpreted in accordance with the provisions governing the administration of the property of others, under the Quebec Civil Code.
